To conclude a successful day, the cozy get-together, chatting, eating and drinking in a good restaurant or winery offers. Ultimately, you determine the pace and destination of the journey. What is certain is that you will remember a few unforgettable moments.

Program Description

The duration of the journey depends on what you want to see and experience. You can choose between a pure "exploration trip" with stops at selected sights or you also integrate one or the other team tasks. We will gladly advise you and take over the design of your individual program.
